

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

COMPLIANCE AND RISK MANAGEMENT (CRM) DEPARTMENT

(Right Vision Securities (Pvt.) Limited)

Version 1.0

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Document Information and History

Regulatory Coverage	Regulation # 14 & 15-Futures Brokers (Licensing and Operations) Regulations, 2018, PMEX Rule Book
Ownership of Document	Compliance and Risk Management Department
Reviewed and Endorsed By and Date	Consultant / Internal Auditor Date:--October, 2025
Approved by and Date	Board of Directors (BODs) Date:-- November, 2025
Document Version	1.0
Date of Last Revision	-----
Effective Date	--November, 2025-(As and when approved by BODs)

Date	Version	Change Reference
Sep. 20, 2025	1.0	Creation of document

PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL

Right Vision Securities (Pvt.) Limited (RVSPL) owns the contents of this policy and this document has been written to be used for internal purposes. Only relevant employees are allowed to use this Policy. Being the property of RVSPL of this policy, any unauthorized, copying, disclosure, quoting, using or distribution of the contents is not permitted without prior written permission from the Company. However, brief extracts can be referred or reproduced or translated conditionally if source is quoted.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Table of Contents

1. TITLE:.....	4
2. BACKGROUND.....	4
3. PURPOSE:	4
4. SCOPE OF APPLICATION:.....	4
5. INTRODUCTION:.....	5
6. CONFLICT OF INTEREST STATEMENT	5
7. REGULATORY REFERENCE:	5
8. EDUCATION AND AWARENESS:	7
9. IDENTIFICATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:	7
10. MANAGEMENT OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:.....	8
11. DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS.....	10
12. REPORTING	10
13. RECORD RETENTION:	10
14. AMENDMENTS IN THE POLICY:.....	11
15. DISCLOSURE:	12

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

1. TITLE:

This Policy shall be called 'Conflict of Interest Policy'. It shall come into force as and when approved by the Board of Directors (BODs) of Right Vision Securities (Pvt.) Limited (hereinafter called as 'RVSPL'/'the Company').

2. BACKGROUND

Future Brokers are required by the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP) to;

- Frame appropriate policies and procedures to minimize conflict of interest arises between the broker and its customer
- Inform customer in case of identification of such conflict
- Prevent and manage conflict of interest
- Implement policy and procedure of conflicts of interest policy
- Formulate a mechanism to resolve the conflict of interest

3. PURPOSE:

Under the SECP's Regulations and PMEX Rule Book, Future Brokers are required to formulate procedures and to take all necessary steps to identify and manage conflicts of interest between;

- Future Broker and a client (or group of clients)
- Between one client (or group of clients) and another client (or group of clients)

The Company has formulated a Conflicts of Interest Policy which elaborates the organizational and administrative arrangements to oversee, to prevent and to manage conflicts of interest which may pose a material risk of damage to the interest of its clients.

4. SCOPE OF APPLICATION:

This Policy applies to all clients who are doing their business or using ancillary services of the company which is responsible to identify and manage conflicts of interest. The clients are also responsible to follow the policy in its true letter and spirit. The Policy is available to all employees to ensure that they are well-aware of how the company deals with relevant actual or potential conflicts of interest.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

5. INTRODUCTION:

Right Vision Securities (Pvt.) Limited is operating as a TREC Holder registered with PMEX under licensed by SECP as a Universal Future Broker to carry out trades in different commodities future contracts available at PMEX. During the operations and liaison with clients, it is very crucial to identify the conflict of interest and subsequently to handle and manage it because it can pose a significant risk to a client's best interests when providing services and conducting activities. In view of this, the Company intends to formulate its Policy to manage these Conflicts of Interests to protect clients of RVSPL from potential harm if arises/foresee between the Company, business trading units, its employees, directors, representatives, associate companies, vendors, agents and clients, etc. The policy is designed to prevent personal interest at the cost of professional responsibilities. This will be helpful to safeguard the interests of the company and the persons affiliated with the Company as well. When using the services and products of the Company, such conflict may be identified and reported; hence this policy shall be helpful to manage and resolve the matter without harming any connected party.

6. CONFLICT OF INTEREST STATEMENT

The Right Vision Securities (Pvt.) Limited is committed to identify, record and prevent or manage conflicts of interests in a fairly transparent manner without harming any party. Such conflicts of interests may be arisen between the company and its clients and/or between the clients while involved in business relations with the company. The company shall ensure that agents, traders' employees and directors act in the best interest of the clients and the company as well. Particularly, the traders are encouraged to maintain integrity, transparency and ethical values in the trading activities. The fundamental principal of the Company's core values is "Fair treatment of clients".

7. REGULATORY REFERENCE:

The Company in compliance with the Regulations No. 14 of Futures Brokers Licensing and Operations Regulations, 2018, Clause no. 2.4 of Chapter-II Governance, Chapter-III TREC of the Exchange, and Clause no. 3.39 of PMEX Rule Book promulgates this Conflict of Interest Policy to apply specifically to its clients associated with the Company. The said regulation is reproduced hereunder:

Futures Brokers (Licensing and Operations) Regulations, 2018 (Chapter III Conduct of a Futures Broker; Regulation # 14. Conflict of interest.-

(1) The futures broker shall take all reasonable steps including the framing of appropriate policies and procedures to minimize conflict of interest between such futures broker and its customers.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

- (2) Subject to the provision of sub-regulation (1), where any conflict of interest arises between the futures broker and its customer, the futures broker shall immediately inform the customer through verifiable means and not gain any direct or indirect advantage from the situation and shall act in the best interests of the customer.
- (3) The futures broker must take reasonable steps to ensure that neither such futures broker nor any of its employees either offers or gives, or solicits or accepts, any inducement that is likely to conflict with any duties owed to the customers.
- (4) The futures broker shall put in place a mechanism and take steps to avoid and eliminate the misalignment of incentives due to conflict of interest between the compensation of senior management officers, employees of the futures broker and interest of the customers.
- (5) The futures broker shall put in place a mechanism to resolve any conflict of interest that may arise in the conduct of business and take all reasonable steps to resolve all conflicts of interests in an equitable manner.
- (6) Where a futures broker has a material interest in a transaction to be entered into with or for a customer, or a relationship which gives rise to a conflict of interest in relation to such a transaction, the futures broker shall not knowingly either advise, or deal in the exercise of discretion, in relation to that transaction unless the futures broker has, –
- (a) Disclosed that material interest or relationship, as the case may be, to the customer; or
 - (b) Taken reasonable steps to ensure that neither the material interest nor the relationship adversely affects the interests of the customer.
- (7) The futures broker shall make appropriate disclosure to customers of possible source or potential areas of conflict of interest which could impair its ability to render fair, objective and unbiased service.
- (8) In case of any breach of policies by its employees, the futures broker shall promptly investigate, and take appropriate action against the persons responsible.

PMEX Rule Book:

Chapter-II GOVERNANCE

2.4 Conflict of Interest:

2.4.1 It is the responsibility of each director to act in the best interests of futures market and investors and to refrain from any conduct that may be considered to be adverse or contrary to futures market and interests of investors.

2.4.2 Each director should disclose to the Board before a Board meeting, any conflict of interest with respect to any item forming part of agenda of such meeting.

2.4.3 Director should not participate in any deliberation, decision making, proceeding, investigation or disciplinary action by the Exchange in the case of a conflict of interest.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Explanation: A "conflict of interest" exists when a director's private interest is inconsistent with or opposed to, or gives the appearance of being inconsistent with or opposed to, futures market and investors interests. Such conflicts of interest may arise not only as a result of a direct personal interest, but also indirectly as a result of the personal interests of a member of his family or organizations affiliated with the director.

8. EDUCATION AND AWARENESS:

The Company has framed this Policy for its employee and all staff member should receive a copy for its compliance. It is expected that employees will strive hard for the good reputation of the Company. For this purpose, the employees are required to adhere to the procedures for personal account dealings, receipt of gifts and inducements, monetary and non-monetary benefits, avoid to damage the reputation of the company, fair dealing with clients etc.

9. IDENTIFICATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:

The scope of policy entails to identify the situation where personal interests and financial gains could influence transparency in the decision-making, fair market practices or impact the reputation of the company. Following are some examples where conflicts of interest may arise:

- Trade is carried out in respect of which the company affiliated person employee/director/partner is happening or existing at the same time either long or short position
- Employee or director of the company is also holding the same position in another company which is also managed by the Company
- Matching of an order of a client with an order for another client for which acting as agent
- Financial or other incentive to prioritize one client/group of clients over the interest of another client or group of clients
- Conflict of interest of the Company with the interests of its shareholder or any affiliated companies
- Engages in the same or similar nature of business as the client or group of clients
- Simultaneously, acting as an agent for more than one client in relation to same types/nature of trades
- Potential conflict may arise in case of partners/employees of the company have personal relationship and/or family connections with other company's partners/employees
- Show an interest in the outcome of the service to, or a trade carried out, a client which differs from the client's interest

The consequences of identification of conflicts of interest may entail a significant and material risk of damage to the interests of the clients. This may happen if the company or a Covered Person;

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

- Earn financial gain, achieve financial benefit or evade a definite financial loss to the detriment of a client
- Receiving of inducement directly or indirectly from a person other than a client in relation to service provided to the client. Such inducement may be in the form of good or service, monies etc.
- Favoritism of one client or group of clients over the interests of another client, such discrimination may be in the form of finance or other incentives
- Interests of the client may be harmonized in the same business

10. MANAGEMENT OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:

The Regulations direct the future broker to formulate a mechanism whereby conflicts of interest are prevented and managed fairly and transparently, both between the broker and their clients, and between the clients. The Company in compliance with the said regulatory requirement has arrangement put in place to prevent, manage and resolve the conflicts vis-à-vis;

- Segregation of duties and responsibilities to avoid conflicts
- Well defined and documented reporting line as per organogram of the Company
- Governance arrangements and strictly adhering code of conduct
- Culture of treating clients fairly as per company's policy and procedure
- Alignment of company's and its employees interests with the client interests
- Action taken by Senior management for management of actual conflicts and to minimize the risk of occurrence of the conflict
- Obligation on the company's associates including employees/partners to strictly follow the Compliance, HR Policy and code of conduct designed to mitigate conflicts and follow the reporting mechanism if conflicts are detected
- Awareness, training and certification on regulations, policies formulated and implemented to promote compliance
- Documentation on recording of potential and actual conflicts and periodical review of the effectiveness of the company's management of conflicts

Conflicts when trading for multiple clients:

The company is well aware to manage conflicts that may arise when trading for multiple clients, vis-à-vis;

- Assurance of best execution as per Order Execution Policy
- Execution of Cross Trade at the appropriate market price and/or as defined by the client. Such execution shall possibly be in the interest of both buyer and seller
- Where allocation is required in respect of aggregated orders and trades, Order Allocation Policy shall ensure allocation shall be fair and transparent in the best interest of the clients. Such aggregation does not harm any client whose order is being aggregated.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Conflicts between employees/directors and clients:

The Company is well aware to manage such conflicts in the manner as given below;

- Any conflict arising between the Trading by the Trader/agent own personal account and trades carried out on behalf of clients are avoided. This is ensured under Proprietary and Personal Account Policy
- Personal relations of trader/agent with the clients are prevented or managed as per Personal Relationship Policy.
- Strictly prohibited to accept or give gift or other financial benefits including other inducements in terms of monetary or non-monetary benefits, hospitality those cannot be deemed justifiable in the circumstances because it give rise to a potential conflict of interest. This is ensured by Gifts and Entertainment Policy that employees do not offer or accept gifts or inducements.
- Outside business activities by trader/agent or any employee are strictly monitored and prevented and/or managed as per Outside Business Activities Policy
- Restriction on employee, trader/agent to work for any other business if there is any risk of a conflict arising

Conflicts arising from doing transaction with associates of the Company:

The Company may have direct or indirect interests with its affiliates; hence risk of potential conflicts may exist. Such conflicts are managed as narrated below;

- To avoid improper sharing of information among the associated companies
- Trades execution with associated entities ensures the best possible results regarding speed, costs, price, settlement, order type etc.
- Observance of code of ethics and code of conduct
- Avoidance to invest in affiliated companies on behalf of clients

Information barriers are designed to restrict or prevent the use of information that is price-sensitive, confidential, and could lead to market abuse, restriction on dealing, conflict of interest, or other unethical or improper activities. The Compliance Officer of the Company to collaborate with the line managers oversees the efficiency of any necessary information barrier. In case staff violates these barriers and access the restricted information, the Compliance Officer should be informed and maintain record of such action.

Remuneration and Perks; in a corporate environment, the remuneration, promotion, increments and perks for the employees are decided by the Remuneration Committee or the senior management. Remuneration, increments, promotion and perks are determined based on overall performance instead to link to the success of any individual transaction. Employees are under the oversight and supervision of management to ensure that the Company is capable to demonstrate the suitable and effective measures are put in place to ensure that conflicts of interest are properly managed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

11. DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS

The Company shall follow the Regulations 14 (7) as stipulated hereunder;

"The futures broker shall make appropriate disclosure to customers of possible source or potential areas of conflict of interest which could impair its ability to render fair, objective and unbiased service."

Any particular situation or specific transaction which caused to raise potential conflict of interest would need to be required to disclose to Compliance Officer for its remedy. It should be cleared to all concerned that conflicts of interest are not always evident, hence covered person/compliance office/trade/agent or any other employee should consult its manager/supervisor or senior management if there exist uncertainty about any situation whether a potential conflict of interest may or may not rise.

Once reported or on disclosure, the Compliance Officer shall scrutinize the situation to determine whether an actual conflict exists and if so then see the probability of taking reasonable steps to manage the conflict. Such steps must be taken under intimation and approval of senior management.

In case of failure to manage or prevent the conflict of interest, all relevant facts should be disclosed to the client enabling him to make informed decision relating to its interests.

12. REPORTING

The employees or other stakeholder foresee or observe any conflicts of interest situations or potential conflict situations, it is expected to promptly report to the Compliance Officer.

13. RECORD RETENTION:

The Company shall keep and maintain record of situations where conflict of interest arises and such record shall be kept and maintained by the Compliance and Risk Management Department. Such record shall be monitored on regular basis and maintain either electronically or physically as appropriate and will contain the nature and form of the evidence obtained together with a copy of the evidence. Compliance and Risk Management Department shall be responsible to maintain and update the record on an ongoing basis and will be kept for five years or as specified in the relevant regulations and/or regulators.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

14. AMENDMENTS IN THE POLICY:

The Company reserves the right to modify, alter and/or update this Conflict of Interest Policy unilaterally as and when necessity arises to stay compliant with relevant law, notification etc.; the modified policy shall be effective upon approval of Board of Directors (BODs) and posting of the revised Conflict of Interest Policy. However, the Company shall review the Conflict of Interest Policy periodically and may change occasionally and thereon amend it from time to time. The clients are advised to keep an eye on the revision date at the top page of this document/Policy. To ensure to inform the clients consistently,

- Make sure the email address associated with the account is up-to-date and accessible
- Regularly review this Conflict of Interest Policy for updates

The Company is committed to keep its clients informed about changes to the Conflict of Interest Policy. Whenever the modifications are made in result to review the policy, the Company will;

- Update the changes on this page and display on the website
- Use push notifications via the Services
- Employ other communication methods, the Company deem appropriate

In case of significant changes in respect of the identification and management mechanism of conflicts of interest, the Company will;

- Highlight the alteration on the website's homepage
- Send a notification to the email address associated to the respective account
- Distribute notification through the services

Generally, the Company considers a nod to this policy in its entirety given by the users engaged with our services and applications. However, the Company will use reasonable efforts to notify and inform the clients with appropriate notice through Website, posting a notice on service or other communication methods as it deem appropriate subject to material changes have been made in the Conflict of Interest Policy. It is the responsibility of the clients to check their emails on regular basis.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

15. DISCLOSURE:

This policy is exclusively owned by the RVSPL which is registered with PMEX as Universal TREC holder under licensed by the SECP. The Company fully recognizes the Conflict of Interest and thereon harmful consequences on clients and consider it a prime important matter with due diligence for which strict management, mechanism, administrative and internal & external control measures have been put in place to avoid any discrimination between the clients. Despite of this on the contrary, the Company considers that the current measures to identify and manage the potential and/or actual conflicts of interest are not enough to fully avoid substantial risk of damage to the interest of the clients. The Company shall disclose to the clients the overall nature and/or causes of conflicts of interests before undertaking any business or any activity.

The contents of this Policy may be changed without prior notice to the clients and other stakeholders of this company. Further stated that the contents and any part of this Policy may be reproduced, redistributed, translated, directly or indirectly to any entity or individual if reference is quoted clearly.

DRAFT